

Pierce C. Azuma, an experienced litigation attorney, is known for his reliability and ability to accurately and timely analyze a claim and provide options that achieve the best possible results for his clients.

In his practice, Pierce defends corporate and insurance clients facing personal injury defense, automobile liability, trucking and commercial transportation, and insurance coverage claims. He has appeared regularly before federal and state government administrative agencies and defended employers and their insurance carriers in administrative hearings.

Pierce is passionate about the law and the opportunity to solve diverse problems that change on a day-to-day basis. He maintains a client focused approach to his practice by having an understanding on how a case outcome can have a lasting impact on the interest and business of his clients.

Practices

Commercial Transportation
Insurance Coverage

Industries

Insurance
Transportation

Bar Admissions

Louisiana

Education

J.D., Loyola University New Orleans, 2011
B.A., Tulane University, 2006

Professional Associations & Accolades

Louisiana State Bar Association
New Orleans Bar Association
Louisiana Association of Defense Counsel
St. Thomas Moore Inn of Court
DOL Joint Bar Association